RE: Ian Wotherspoon

In keeping with our mandate relating to risk management and personnel qualifications, this correspondence is being provided to update our member associations and leagues in that regard.

It has come to our attention that a certain Mr. Ian Wotherspoon has taken it upon himself to disregard an earlier and outstanding sanction, applied in the fall of 2009, which prevents him from either attending or participating in any ODHA/ODMHA event/activity until certain conditions have been satisfied.

Please take note of this sanction which continues to be in effect and advise us promptly if you should become aware of any further breach of the outstanding sanction by this individual.

In addition, it is imperative that all Associations/Leagues continue to actively screen and approve any person who is interested in providing assistance within their programs. This includes any person, who although not "registered" as a team official, is helping with team related matters.
